

K Visa Required Documents

Please go to Level 10 of the MLC Centre for security check-in on the day of your interview and present this letter to our security to access the Consulate.

The following items are required before your visa can be issued.

- You are required to provide the original and one photocopy of each original document (unless stated)
- Place each photocopy directly beneath each original document.
- Failure to provide a copy of a document will delay your interview. You will be directed to obtain copies and return for your interview.
- The documents must be out of envelopes, sleeves or folders.
- For Families: the children's documents must be separated individually.
- Procedures for obtaining documents from all countries, including a list of documents which are never available from certain countries, can be found at the Department of State's reciprocity website

Translation(s):

All documents not in English must be accompanied by an English translation

- The translator must be competent to translate
- The translation must be from the original document
- The translation must be signed and dated by the translator

K1/K2 Document Cover Sheet

- Print and submit the document cover sheet(s) to ensure you have all the required documents (mark with a "✓")
K1 Document Cover Sheet/K2 Document Cover Sheet

Passport: Original only

- Your valid passport

DS-160 Non-immigrant Visa Electronic Application Form: Copy only

- Confirmation page of the completed DS-160

MRV Fee receipt for K Visa applicants: Copy only

- Showing the amount you paid

Photographs: Originals only

- Two U.S. passport size photo (5x5cm on a white background).
- Write your Full Name and A# on the back of the photos.
- You can find your A# on the left hand corner on your copy of your approved I-129F (attached)
- Refer to Travel.State.gov for instructions on the accepted photo.
- Refer to our website for our list of known photographers who take U.S. sized passport photographs.

Revalidation Letter: Copy only

- Your I-129F petition may expire by the time you attend your final visa interview. To revalidate your petition, please have your U.S. citizen fiancé(e) provide you with a letter requesting that your petition be extended to a further 4 months from the approval date of the I-129F petition. This letter must be dated and signed by your fiancé(e) The letter from your U.S. citizen fiancé(e) should state their intention to still marry you within 90 days of your arrival into the U.S. with the K-1 visa and that you both are still free to marry.

Birth Certificate:

The certificate must contain the date of birth, place of birth, names of both parents and annotation by the appropriate authority indicating that it is an extract from the official records.

Unobtainable Birth Certificate (if applicable):

Submit a statement from the appropriate government authority stating the reason your birth record is not available. With this statement you must obtain secondary evidence. For example:

- (a) A baptismal certificate that contains the date and place of birth and both parents names providing the baptism took place shortly after the birth;
- (b) An affidavit from a close relative, preferably the applicant's mother, stating the date and place of birth, both parent's names, and the mother's maiden name.

The affidavit must be executed before an official authorized to take oaths or affirmations.

This requirement applies to certain countries only.

Termination of Prior Marriages:

Submit the final divorce decree, death certificate or annulment of each prior marriage.

Australian police certificate:

You must apply for an Australian Federal Police Certificate (AFP). Australian police certificates are valid for 12 months from date of issuance. Your certificate can be based on a name check or fingerprint check.

If it's based on a name check, it must contain all aliases previously and presently used. Failure to provide a name check certificate with all aliases may result in the consular officer refusing your application for a police certificate based on a fingerprint check.

Other Country(ies) Police Certificate(s):

If you answer YES to the following, the police certificate is required from that country.

1a. Since turning 16, I have resided in another country for 6 months or more. ☐ YES

1b. At that time I held / currently hold citizenship of that country. ☐ YES

Or:

2. Since turning 16, I have resided in another country (besides Australia and the U.S.) for 12 months or more? ☐ YES

U.S. police certificates are not required

Court and Prison Records:

Applicants who have been convicted of a crime must obtain a certified copy of each court record and any prison record, regardless of any subsequent amnesty, pardon, or other act of clemency.

Military Records:

Required from any persons who have served in the military forces of any country.

Form I-134 Affidavit of Support:

- Form I-134 and supporting documentation

Medical Examination Report: Original only

- Arrange for a medical examination with one of our approved panel physicians. It is your responsibility to schedule a medical exam with an approved physician before your visa interview appointment at the U.S. Consulate General. Medical examination results from other physicians will not be accepted. Medical examinations cannot be performed in the United States. The panel physician will send exam results directly to the U.S. Consulate General.

USCIS's pamphlet

Information on the Legal Rights Available to Immigrant Victims of Domestic Violence in the United States and Facts about Immigrating on a Marriage-Based Visa

Visa information

I understand that my Australian Federal Police certificate and Medical Exam report must be valid at the time of issuing my visa. Please provide your planned date of travel on the document cover sheet.